

Writing Contest Planned

Entries in the second annual Creative Writing Contest, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will be accepted from elementary school students in the city until March 25, it was announced today.

Youngsters in the third through eighth grades are eligible to enter the contest, which will be judged in three divisions.

Judges will select first and second place winner for both stories and poems in the third and fourth grade, fifth and sixth grade, and seventh and eighth grade categories.

Awards will be given during the Recreation Department's annual open house next June.

All entries should be submitted to Writing Contest, Torrance Recreation Department, 3031 Torrance Blvd. A file card with the participant's full name, address, school, and grade should be securely attached to the entry.

Bandits Get $500

Two bandits robbed the Lochmann Farm Dairy at 24327 S. Main St. of $500 about 9 p.m. Sunday. The bandits were described as short and thin. Both were in their late teens, it was reported.

New Court Date Set In Assault

A Torrance man accused of assaulting a police officer has been ordered to return to court next Monday at 9 a.m.

A preliminary hearing scheduled for yesterday morning has been continued until Monday for William Jennings Bryan Hughes, 58, of 1318 Madrid Ave.

Hughes is accused of assaulting a Torrance police officer last Thursday. The officer, William E. Bornhoff, sustained a broken nose.

Hughes, who allegedly struck Bornhoff across the face with a tire iron, is charged with suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon. The incident occurred about 1 p.m. last Thursday morning when Bornhoff, who was walking to his home after completing his shift at the police department, spotted a man, later identified as Hughes, tampering with a neighbor's car.

Bornhoff said he went to investigate and was struck in the face with a tire iron. Hughes fled and was taken into custody after a long chase.

not saying such a new program should be established but "just that it's time to take a second look" at the policy statement.

One member of the council suggested at the meeting that the city's annual bill for traveling—including trips by all city employees and the council—might top $100,000.

A series which appeared in the Press-Herald in January, 1965, pointed out that taxpayers had been handed a $30,000 bill for travel by councilmen alone during the previous 18 months.

AT LEAST one councilman, however, indicated he will attend the Honolulu meeting of mayors and councilmen.

J. A. Beasley, speaking during a recess which followed the action, said he had attended all the sessions of the group since he was first elected to the council.

"I'm going to Hawaii," he said. "Twelve years on the council entitles me to that."

Ross A. Sciarrotta Sr. chairs the three-man council finance committee which will make the study. Beasley and H. Ted Olson are members.

Ted Olson, Torrance councilman and South Bay District chairman, said.

Parade chairmen are Charles Cederlof, former manager of Glendale Savings and Loan Association's Torrance office, and Harry Gorman, general manager of Del Amo Properties Co.

OTHERS SERVING on committees include David Halstead of Spraker and Halstead, finance; Bill Cibrowski of the city of Torrance, city liaison; Dr. Robert Morton of the Torrance Unified School District, bands; Lt. D. C. Cook of the Torrance Police Department, traffic control; Col. Paul Noel of Los Alamitos Naval Air Station, military groups; Ted Green of Ted Green Chevrolet, automobiles; Howard Weichsel of Bullock's Realty Corp., parade breakfast, and Joe Doss of Mayfair Creameries, announcers.

Ken Roberts of Ken Roberts and Associates is handling Boy Scout liaison and Jack Heidt of Union Bank is in charge of special guests.
